Information We Collect

We may collect the following personal information:

- Contact Details: Name, email address, phone number, mailing address.
- Professional Information: Employment history, education background, qualifications, CVs, references, and other recruitment-related details.
- Usage Data: Information about how you access and use our website, including IP addresses, browser types, and operating systems.

How We Collect Your Information

We collect your information through:

- Online forms and website submissions.
- Emails and other direct communications.
- Documents you voluntarily submit, such as CVs.
- Interactions with our social media accounts.

How We Use Your Information

GPS360 uses your personal information for purposes including:

- Matching job seekers to suitable employment opportunities.
- Providing recruitment and staffing solutions.
- Managing candidate and client relationships.
- Communicating with you about opportunities, news, and updates.
- Ensuring compliance with applicable laws and regulations.

Sharing Your Information

We may share your personal data with:

- Prospective employers, hiring managers, and organisations we represent.

- Our trusted partners and affiliated employers, when relevant to job placements.
- Service providers who assist us with business operations, data management, and technical support.
- Legal authorities, when required by law or to protect legal rights.

Data Security

We implement appropriate technical and organisational measures to protect your personal information from unauthorised access, misuse, alteration, or loss. While we strive to maintain robust security, no method of online data transmission is entirely secure; therefore, absolute security cannot be guaranteed.

Data Retention

GPS360 retains your personal data for as long as is necessary to fulfil our recruitment services, comply with legal obligations, or as otherwise stated at the point of data collection.

Your Data Protection Rights

You have rights regarding your personal information, including the right to:

- Request access to your personal data.
- Correct inaccuracies in your personal data.
- Request deletion or restriction of your data.
- Withdraw consent at any time (where consent is required).

To exercise these rights, please contact us at the information below.

Third-Party Links

Our website may contain links to external sites not operated by GPS360. We are not responsible for the privacy practices or content of these third-party sites. Please review their respective privacy policies.

Changes to This Privacy Policy

We may update this policy periodically. Any changes will be posted on this page with an updated revision date. We encourage regular review of this policy to stay informed of how we protect your personal information.
